

POSEY-ONLY WORKING TOOL

Solve Matrix

Built from Justin Posey's own statements and nothing else: 216 items, cited by section.item number from "What Justin Posey Has Said." No fan theories, no community solves. Seven matrices, each with blank columns for your own work.

- A Journey matrix: the poem stage by stage, with the mode, constraints, distances and open questions Posey attached to each
- B Location filter: every rule that applies to the final spot, with pass/fail boxes for three candidates
- C Distance and geometry ledger: every statement that carries a length, a direction or a shape
- D Element matrix: what each part of the hunt (poem, book, map, series, songs, cipher, logo, time) contains and what it is for
- E Deductions that follow from his words alone, with the chain of citations
- F Progress timeline: what he says has been solved, and when
- G Open-question ledger: what he declined, and a specific, not-on-the-nose way to ask it again

JOURNEY MATRIX

The poem stage by stage. Mode and constraints come only from his statements; the Test column is what his words let you check.

STAGE	MODE PER POSEY	WHAT HE CONFIRMED OR SAID	HARD CONSTRAINTS IN FORCE	DISTANCE HE ATTACHED	STILL OPEN (DECLINED)	TEST YOU CAN RUN	YOUR READING
Stanza 1 (1:1–1:4)	Armchair. Not actionable, but 'helpful context' 2.5	Every line is helpful; first stanza 'at least a large portion' solved by Sep 2025 2.5 14.4 . Numbers hide in words and wordplay 2.9 . The element of time is important 2.11	No red herrings 2.3 . Consecutive order 2.2	None	Whether it must be rearranged: 'not going to rule that out' 2.7	Read it as instructions for reading, not as a place. Count what can be counted 2.9
2:1 As hope surges, clear and bright	Armchair. First actionable clue 2.6	The book does not name the specific area but has descriptions that 'pertain to the area' 9.10	Free, 24/7, public 1.7 1.10	None stated here	Whether the surge is water: never asked in his words	Find the book passages that describe terrain, then match 9.10 9.18
2:2 Walk near waters' silent flight	Walking distance begins 3.4	Walking distance from here through 2:3 3.4	No swimming, no dangerous water crossing 1.3 1.16 . Feet wet not required 4.13	Walking distance to 2:3 3.4	River crossing: not specified 1.15	Measure 2:2 to 2:3 on foot; if it needs a car it fails 3.4
2:3 Round the bend, past the Hole	Walking 3.4	The Hole has no man-made implication 5.1 . Not the man-made clue 5.1	Not a cave, mine or tunnel 1.1	Walking distance from 2:2 3.4	Whether the Hole is a hole-named place: 'on the nose' 5.2	Your Hole must be natural and on the walk; a culvert, tunnel or mine fails 1.1 5.1
2:4 I wait for you to cast your pole	Walking (continues)	Nothing confirmed	—	—	Fishing pole: not specified 2.26	Test both readings against 3:1 2.26
3:1 In ursa east his realm awaits	Armchair (stanza 3 is before BOTG) 3.2	Only Ursa East matters; no west Ursa 6.1 . Lowercase intentional 6.2 . 'He' alive 'depends on your perspective' 6.3	Consecutive after 2:4 2.2	Not a great distance from the previous clue 2.17	'Use a star': no further clarity 6.2	Ursa East must be a thing with an east, not a heading 6.1
3:2 His bride stands guard at ancient gates	Armchair	Bride identified by someone 6.6 . Not alive now; something visible 6.4 . 'Bride' is the right word 2.25 . Strange to find the bride without understanding the gates 6.7	Gates first, then bride 6.7	Bride to treasure: 'a matter of perspective' 6.11	Ever alive: 'depends how you define alive' 6.5	Name the gates before the bride; if your bride comes first, re-order 6.7

STAGE	MODE PER POSEY	WHAT HE CONFIRMED OR SAID	HARD CONSTRAINTS IN FORCE	DISTANCE HE ATTACHED	STILL OPEN (DECLINED)	TEST YOU CAN RUN	YOUR READING
3:3 Her foot of three at twenty degree	Armchair	You do not need to be at the bride to identify her foot of three 6.12 . Numbers indirect 2.9 . A distance element exists 2.10	Solvable from a map or a distance 6.12	'Twenty' and 'three' are the poem's only stated numbers; he keeps wordplay for numbers in play 2.9	Nothing declined here	Identify the foot of three from a map. If it needs standing at the bride, it is wrong 6.12
3:4 Return her face to find the place	Armchair	Her face belongs to the bride 6.8 . Physical rotation 'technically' yes 6.9 . Face to place 'not as far as many think' 6.10 . The place is not necessarily the sacred space 6.13	—	Face to place: short 6.10	Face or gaze: no clarity 6.14	Rotate something physical and see where it points; the place should be near 6.9 6.10
4:1 Double arcs on granite bold	Boots on the ground required from here 3.2	One clue, depending on path, has a man-made implication; the Hole is not it 4.8 5.1	Not associated with buildings 1.1 ; exterior of a structure 'always a possibility' 1.13	—	Is this the man-made clue: punted 5.3 . Natural or created: not answered 5.4 . A bearing: punted 5.5	Ask whether the arcs can be seen without being on site; if yes, that contradicts BOTG at stanza 4 3.2
4:2–4:4 Secrets of the past, beyond time's reach, wonder guards this sacred space	Boots on the ground	Sacred space not necessarily the place 6.13 . Something must be manipulated to see the treasure; a flashlight may help 4.9 . No clue visible from 15 feet 4.6 . No blaze on a tree 4.19	Not near a trail 4.7 . Not near graves 1.1	Within a mile of the car to figure out where it is 3.5	Buried: will not say 4.10 . Rocks: punted 4.12	Your spot must be invisible from 15 feet and off-trail 4.6 4.7
Stanza 5	Possibly the last actionable clue 2.6	Last actionable clue is stanza four or five 'depending on interpretation' 2.6	—	—	—	Decide whether stanza 5 moves you or only warns you 2.6
Checkpoint	Not specified whether before or after boots on the ground 7.5	Placed AND already there 7.2 . Topographic 'implication' 7.2 . At least halfway through the clues 7.1 . Hard to get all the way without seeing it 7.3 . Not in the series 7.4	Same rules as the treasure: not underwater, cave, private, graves 1.1	Searchers have been within 200 feet of it 14.3	Before or after BOTG 7.5	Your route must pass something you could photograph and send him 14.3
The final spot	Retrieving, not searching 3.10	Only he knows 4.1 . Important to him, known 'for quite some time' 4.2 . Kitchen-sized area, unreached 7.8 14.5 . Below 11,000 ft 4.17	All of section 1	A hike is required, length unspecified 3.8 ; a low-rider car reaches the road 3.9	Prius within a mile: punted 4.22	Run matrix B	—

DISTANCE AND GEOMETRY LEDGER

Every statement of his that carries a length, an order, a direction or a shape. Use it to size a candidate route before you drive.

STATEMENT	CITE	KIND	WHAT IT FIXES	NUMBER
Walking distance from 'waters' silent flight' through 'past the Hole'	3.4	Length	2:2 to 2:3 is on foot	walking
Not more than a mile to figure out where the treasure is	3.5	Length	Car to the point of knowing	≤ 1 mile
A hike is required; length withheld	3.8	Length	There is a walk; not a pullout	> 0
If you need many bottles of water you are going too far	3.7	Length	Short walk, not a day
Each clue is not meant to convey great distance	2.17	Spacing	Clue-to-clue gaps are small	small
First clue to last in miles: impossible to answer given the structure	2.23	Structure	The clues are not a simple line
Distance from the first actionable clue to the treasure: forming the question may give the answer	2.22	Structure	The question contains a premise he rejects
Beginning to end, the poem creates 'some sort of shape'	2.16	Shape	The route draws a figure	shape
Indiana Jones and National Treasure, offered instead of linear / points / hybrid	2.18	Shape	Leaned toward a device or construction, not a march
Backtracking: no if you knew the whole solution; yes in the natural progression	2.19	Shape	The path re-crosses itself for a first-timer
You do not need to be at the bride to identify her foot of three	6.12	Geometry	The foot is readable from a distance or a map
Her face to the place: not as far as many think	6.10	Length	Short
Bride to treasure: a matter of perspective	6.11	Length	Depends how you measure it
Return her face implies a physical rotation, technically	6.9	Geometry	Something turns	rotation
Twenty degree; foot of three	2.9 6.12	Numbers	The only numbers in the poem; wordplay for numbers is in play	20, 3
42 is relevant	9.22	Number	A number outside the poem matters	42
Clock: the lower the number the better; 4:02 and 5:26 out; clocks are part of the cipher	11.7 10.6	Number	A clock reading feeds the cipher, not the map
Below 11,000 feet	4.17	Elevation	Ceiling	< 11,000 ft
Within 75 miles of a Fenn search location, then walked back	8.9	Radius	Soft	75 mi
Element of time is important	2.11	Time	Time matters somewhere in the solve
Vantage point involved, but no clue is necessarily about it	4.16	Geometry	A viewpoint exists in the solve

STATEMENT	CITE	KIND	WHAT IT FIXES	NUMBER
Checkpoint at least halfway through the clues; at least ten clues	7.12.1	Order	Checkpoint at clue 5 or later	≥ 5th clue
Searchers within 200 feet of the checkpoint; within two miles of the treasure	14.314.2	Length	How close the crowd got	200 ft; 2 mi

What each part of the hunt is for, in his words. The Required column separates what you must solve from what only helps.

ELEMENT	WHAT HE SAYS IT HOLDS	REQUIRED TO FIND IT?	WHAT IT POINTS TO	STATUS	CITE
The poem	All essential clues; at least ten; consecutive; every line helpful; numbers hidden in words	Yes, the whole thing	An exact location when solved in full	Stanza 1, part of 2, part of 3 solved by others	2.12.22.52.93.314.5
The book	Several hints sprinkled through the stories, not every story; descriptions that pertain to the area; photographs useful; the Tucker poem helpful; dedication layered and intentional; four points of the compass, 'the book is the best reference'	Written so everyone is on equal footing	The area, the person, the container	Read as a memoir first	9.109.119.129.189.199.49.179.8
The map	The treasure is on it; he chose which landmarks are labeled; names, positions and elevations are the designer's and errors are unintentional	'A good primer'	The region	Useful early; still a primer later	8.68.79.20
Layer five	'Has some bearing on the treasure hunt'	Not stated	Not stated	Undefined	9.2
The Netflix series	At least five singular clues plus compound ones; two super obvious hints in an episode 2 or 3 scene without him; hints 'guide you in the book'; checkpoint not shown; Carl scene and Red Mountain clip hold nothing	Hints, not the solution	Back into the book	The two obvious hints were found by Sep 2025	11.211.39.17.411.411.5
The clock	Part of the cipher; lower number is better; Roman numerals irrelevant; 4:02 and 5:26 out; 'a little uncanny'	Feeds the cipher	The cipher	Open	10.611.711.8
The songs	Clues in the songs; one 'extremely definitive' clue; a hidden audio message is the technical clue	Technical clue not required	'The key to one direction lies in another'; not the azimuth	Technical clue solved by one person	10.710.510.9
The cipher	MAGYAR; basic math; a nod to what the container is; gives no coordinates, state or region; 'who says it's in the book'	No	The container	Solved April 2026	10.410.310.8
The logo	Angzarr, chosen and modified intentionally; 'has some meaning'	Not stated	Not stated	Open	9.6
42	'The short answer is yes'; Hitchhiker's Guide	Not stated	Not stated	Open	9.22
Time	'The element of time is important'; no time travel	Not stated	Not stated	Open	2.112.12
The checkpoint	Placed and already there; topographic implication; halfway or later; pivotal	Practically yes: hard to get all the way without it	Confidence that you are on the path	Reached within 200 ft by some; no correct photo	7.27.17.314.3
The container	An existing object with deliberate modifications; recognizable to anyone who read the book or saw the series; not a box; Saddleback briefcase is what carried it, not what holds it	Recognize it on sight	Itself	Guessed correctly by some	12.112.210.4

E DEDUCTIONS THAT FOLLOW FROM HIS WORDS ALONE

These are inferences, not statements. Each one shows the chain of his own statements it rests on, so you can break the chain if you disagree with a link.

#	DEDUCTION	CHAIN OF HIS STATEMENTS	CONFIDENCE
1	Stanzas 1 to 3 are solvable from home even though stanza 2 describes walking. The walk is described before it is taken.	Boots on the ground required only at stanza four 3.2 + a fair amount solvable from home 3.1 + walking distance 2:2 to 2:3 3.4	High
2	The checkpoint is at or after the fifth clue, so it is in stanza 3 or later.	At least ten clues 2.1 + at least halfway when you reach it 7.1 + consecutive order 2.2	High
3	The checkpoint is a natural feature that he added something to, or a placed thing set at a natural feature.	Both placed and already there 7.2 + topographic implication 7.2 + not something you need to worry about moving 7.2 + hunt items obey the rules 1.1	High
4	The bride is a visible landform or object, identified by its gates first. Anything alive, or anything found before its gates, is wrong.	Not alive now, something visible 6.4 + strange to find her without the gates 6.7 + 'bride' is the right word 2.25	High
5	'Ursa east' names a thing that has an east, not a direction to walk.	Only Ursa East matters, no west Ursa 6.1 + lowercase intentional 6.2	High
6	Stanza 3 is a construction on a map: a foot found at a distance, a rotation, and a short hop to the place.	Foot of three without being at the bride 6.12 + rotation technically yes 6.9 + face to place short 6.10 + Indiana Jones / National Treasure 2.18 + shape 2.16	Medium
7	'The place' (3:4) and 'the sacred space' (4:4) can be two spots, so the stanza 3 construction may deliver you somewhere that stanza 4 then moves you from.	Not necessarily the same 6.13 + boots on the ground from stanza four 3.2	Medium
8	The one man-made implication, if it exists on your path, sits in stanza 4, because the Hole is cleared and stanza 3 is map work.	Hole not man-made 5.1 + one clue may have a man-made implication depending on path 4.8 + arcs question punted 5.3 + exterior of a structure possible 1.13	Medium
9	The final spot is within a mile of a car, reached by a real but short walk, off any trail, and not obvious from 15 feet.	Not more than a mile 3.5 + hike required 3.8 + not near a trail 4.7 + nothing visible from 15 feet 4.6 + manipulate something to see it 4.9	High
10	Whether the treasure is buried does not change the solve; the poem delivers an exact location regardless.	'Wouldn't matter either way' 4.10 + exact location on full solve 3.3	High
11	The cipher does not locate anything. Solving MAGYAR tells you what to look for, not where.	MAGYAR gives no coordinates, state or region 10.4 + a nod to the container 10.4 + not critical 10.1	High
12	The book describes the area without naming it, so terrain descriptions in the stories are the best filter for the first actionable clue.	Specific area not mentioned but descriptions pertain to it 9.10 + hints sprinkled, not in every story 9.12 + first actionable clue is 2:1 2.6	High
13	The crowd's best position is 200 feet from the checkpoint and outside the kitchen-sized area, so the checkpoint is not at the treasure.	200 feet from the checkpoint 14.3 + kitchen-sized area unreachable 7.8 + no correct checkpoint photo 14.3	Medium
14	Some part of the solve depends on time (a date, an hour, a season, an age), and it is not a rule about when to visit.	Element of time important 2.11 + 24/7 access 1.10 + clues stand the test of time 1.18	Medium
15	Spoken answers are less reliable than written ones, by his own account. Weight the rules, the FAQ and his posts above any podcast reply.	Prefers written responses to avoid errors 15.3 + off-the-cuff forum replies can muddy the waters 15.5	High

PROGRESS TIMELINE

What he says has been solved, in order. The gap between six clues and the kitchen-sized area is where the hunt stands.

DATE	WHAT HE SAID	SOLVED SO FAR (HIS COUNT)	CITE
Mar 28 2025	Not found	—	14.1
Apr 9 2025	Only he knows; 'who says it's a box'; cipher toward poem or book not specified	—	4.1 12.1 10.2
Jun 21 2025	Within two miles; nobody at the checkpoint; nobody has said the cipher answer; no state ruled out; below 11,000 ft	Under two clues implied	14.2 8.1 4.17
Aug 1 2025	Several have solved at least the first two clues; some within 200 ft of the checkpoint; zero correct photos	2 clues	14.3
Sep 2025	Stanza 1 and at least part of stanza 2 solved; searchers 'quite close'; the two obvious Netflix hints found	Stanza 1 + part of 2	14.4 11.3
Mar 28 2026	Bride identified; part of stanza 3 solved; at least six clues by the most advanced searcher; kitchen-sized area unreachable; nobody way off, nobody uber close	6 clues	6.6 14.5 7.8
Apr 2026	Cipher solved: MAGYAR; technical clue confirmed	Cipher done	10.4 10.5
Jul 2026	Marked-book prize found, not the treasure; monthly Featured Question begins	—	14.7 14.9

WHAT "SIX CLUES" CAN COVER

With at least ten clues in consecutive order [2.1, 2.2], six solved clues starting at 2:1 [2.6] reach into stanza 3, which matches "part of stanza 3 solved" [14.5] and "bride identified" [6.6]. So the frontier is between the bride and the foot of three, or between the foot and the rotation. Nobody has reported the arcs.

USE OF THE TIMELINE

If your solve places the checkpoint before the bride, it must explain how searchers were within 200 feet of the checkpoint in Aug 2025 [14.3] while stanza 3 was unsolved until 2026 [14.5]. If it places the checkpoint after the bride, the 200-foot group had solved more than he credited them with at the time. Either way, write down which.

OPEN-QUESTION LEDGER

Everything he refused, with his stated reason. He answers questions that are specific but not on the nose [14.9]. The suggested rewordings are drafts for the monthly Featured Question, not facts.

WHAT HE DECLINED	CITE	WHY IT WAS REFUSED (HIS WORDS)	A SPECIFIC, NOT-ON-THE-NOSE WAY TO ASK	YOUR NOTE
Does the Hole correspond to a hole-named place?	5.2	'An on the nose question'	Is the Hole something a fisherman would call a hole?
Is 'double arcs' the man-made clue? Natural or created?	5.3 5.4	Punted; 'he knows what he knows'	Were the double arcs there before you first visited the site?
Is 'double arcs' a bearing?	5.5	Punted	Do the double arcs stay in one place through the year?
Is the place in her face or her gaze?	6.14	No clarity	When her face is returned, does the place lie in front of her or behind her?
Is the checkpoint before or after boots on the ground?	7.5	Not specified; may reconsider	Can a searcher describe the checkpoint to you accurately without having stood at it?
Do you need to move rocks?	4.12	Punted	Is what must be manipulated lighter than the treasure?
Is it buried?	4.10	AI could use it	Skip; he has stated it does not change the solve
Are national parks ruled out?	4.20	Will not say yes or no	Is the final location on land where a dog may go off-trail on a leash?
Is 'cast your pole' a fishing pole?	2.26	Not specified	Would the person in 'I wait for you' be standing in water or beside it?
Can a Prius get within a mile?	4.22	Punted	Is the last road before the walk paved?
Does the hunt require a river crossing?	1.15	Not specified	Is every hunt item on the same side of every river it is near?
Does the site predate your Fenn searches?	4.21	Not specified	Did you know the site before 2010?
Which animal did you see?	8.12	Would affect the search area	Is the animal's range on the printed map limited to one state?
The one question nobody has asked	2.14	He cannot verbalize it	Work backward from 'the key to one direction lies in another' [10.5] and the element of time [2.11]
